News Sheet for
Sunday 3 July 2022
Third Sunday after Trinity

WELCOME TO OUR WORSHIP, IT'S GREAT TO HAVE YOU WITH US.

This week in our Gospel reading we hear of Jesus sending out 70 disciples (you probably thought there were only 12) into all the towns he intended to visit himself. They were to be his heralds, his announcers, telling people that Jesus was coming and getting them ready to receive him.

We sometimes think the work of the church is to do God's work for him, and then we feel overwhelmed by the enormity of the task or disheartened when, despite our best efforts, things don't turn out as we had hoped.

Our job is to prepare the way, to tell people the good news of Jesus and get their attention so that he can come into their lives and work his wonders. It is always Christ himself who brings transformation, healing and hope, he employs us to let the world know about it. What a great job that is!

On Saturday Cally is ordained priest in the Cathedral - please pray for her and her family as she enters this joyous new phase of her ministry. She will celebrate Communion for the first time this Sunday at P&J - do please join us for this very special occasion, and if you can for a bring and share lunch after the service.

May God bless you all.

Mark
